A Pleasant Entertainment-Secret Orders-Political.

DANVILLE, VA., October 26.-(Spe cial.)-The Sunday school at State-Line church, of which Mr. Coleman is superintendent, and Rev. T. C. Alderson pastor, closed up for the winter yesterday. A good attendance of children and grown people was present. A long programme, children, and talks by older persons, had been prepared and was faithfully exe-cuted. At 1:39 P. M. a table was arranged in the grove, isden with the fat of the land, and the company invited to partake of the bountful repast. The weather was mild and warm, the sky clear, the foliage still hanging to the trees, and all this, with the ripple of laughter of the young ones, made the day one to be long remembered. It was quite 5 o'clock in the afternoon ere good-Live were said and the church doors locked so far as the Sunday school is concerned, until next spring. ORDERS.

POLITICAL.

The Democratic candidates for the Legislature have been making the "welkin ring" through the length and breadth of the county since the 16th Instant, and will keep this up until November 2d. At many places the crowds were as large as usually turn out in what is called an off-year, and they paid close attention to what the speakers had to say. There has been no speaking in this city as yet, but before the day of election comes around no doubt one or more grand rallies will be held. There is some indifference among the voters, some saying they will not vote, but this saying one can hear on the eve of every election, to be broken when the day arrives.

EAST RADFORD, VA., October 26 .-(Special.)-A little child of James Brunk was killed Friday by a "pusher" on the Norfolk and Western railroad, near Vicker's Switch. The father was at home in bed, suffering from injuries received by a fail from a trestle, and the mother was in the kitchen, when the little 2-year-old wandered out on the track,

Mr. E. E. Gibson, an engineer on the Norfolk and Western, accompanied by Miss Flora Kinzer, daughter of a prosper-ous farmer, near town, slipped away quietly a few days ago and went to Winquietly a few days ago and went to Winston-Salem. N. C., where they were married. The father and daughter were preparing to ride home on horseback from a neighbor's house, when the young man came along in a buggy, and proposed that the young lady ride with him. As there was no apparent danger, permission was granted, but, instead of going home the young people continued to Christiansburg, and there took the train. The youth of the bride and a desire to send her away to school another year constituted the only grounds of opposition.

Engineer O'Neill and Fireman Linda-Engineer O'Neill and Fireman Linda-mood, who were killed in the treight-wreck at Max Meadows Wednesday, were well known here, and very popu-lar. The engineer stuck to his post. Fire-man Lindamood is the fifth member of his family killed in railroad service.

The politicans are arousing themselves, and the prospects are that a full vote will be polied. Both the candidates are popular. While Montgomery county generally elects Republican county officers, the member of the House of Delegates for several years has been a Democrat, and it is thought that while the fight will be a close one, McDonald, the Democrat, will be elected.

Rev. J. R. Harrison, pastor of the Baptist church, here, has received a call to the Baptist church in St. Joseph, Mo.
